

IRF Calendar of Events - 2010

IRF Road Scholar Program

*January 6 – 15, 2010
Washington, DC*

This annual 10-day Program introduces top transportation graduate students (recipients of IRF grants) to its members and the road industry leadership. This is an ideal recruitment opportunity for IRF members.

IRF Annual Awards Luncheon

*January 11, 2010
Washington, DC*

This annual event honors and recognizes outstanding projects and organizations in front of an international audience of hundreds of road industry professionals.

World Bank Road Safety Training

*March 2010
Africa & South America*

IRF's multi-disciplinary road safety training will cover Roadside & Median Safety, Vulnerable Users, and Intersection and Roundabout Safety.

Senior Road Executives Program

*April 12 – 24, 2010
Birmingham, United Kingdom*

The Program is designed to advance understanding, through an inter-disciplinary approach, of the most pressing issues facing the road sector by providing a unique forum for debate and discussion led by experts.

IRF World Meeting 2010

*May 25 – 28, 2010
Lisbon, Portugal*

IRF's largest and most important event of 2010 will gather the global road industry together to share best practices, network with colleagues, identify potential business partners and clients, and provide a global forum to showcase the industry's latest technologies.

Preserving Our Highways Infrastructure Assets

*August 3 – 6, 2010
Orlando, Florida*

This year's seminar features new and updated content, including presentation and evaluation of case studies and diverse country experiences and lessons learned applicable to developed and developing countries.

IRF Latin America Regional Congress

*September 20 – 23, 2010
Bogotá, Colombia*

Held with the support of the Inter-American Development Bank, this congress will feature international expert speakers focusing on the specific needs and solutions to the infrastructure, safety and mobility challenges of Colombia and the rest of Latin America.

IRF Workshop on Performance Based Contracts & Evaluating Asset Condition

*September 28 – 30, 2010
Austin, Texas*

Highway industry experts and practitioners from Australia, Canada, and the United States will discuss how Performance-Based Contracts can be part of an effective strategy to perform highway maintenance on existing and newly constructed infrastructure that may be part of a design-build-maintain contract.

IRF North America Regional Congress

*October 3 – 6, 2010
New York, New York*

Held in conjunction with ARTBA's Annual Meeting, this event is designed to meet the needs of road industry senior management. There will be sessions focusing on both North American and international projects, markets, technology innovation, and industry trends.

Preserving Africa's Roads

*October 11 – 13, 2010
Capetown, South Africa*

This regional conference will present solutions to the critical challenge to Africa's economic and social development posed by deteriorating and insufficient infrastructure.

IRF Roadside and Work Zone Safety Workshops

*November 1 – 2—Tokyo, Japan
November 4 – 5—Seoul, Korea*

Held with the support of both the Japan Road Association and the Korea Expressway Corporation, these IRF workshops will showcase state-of-the-art safety concepts, best practices and innovations from North America and Europe to the Japanese and Korean Road Authorities.

IRF Executive Seminar on Performance Based Road Maintenance Contracting

*October 31 – November 9, 2010
Orlando, Florida*

Global experts in the fields of maintenance planning, financing and program development will present the latest information concerning existing and future program initiatives.

5th Regional Conference on Road Safety

*November 25 – 26, 2010
New Delhi, India*

This conference offers a forum for regional stakeholders and their international counterparts to devise road sector policies to develop better, safer roads in India.

IRF Middle East Regional Congress

December 2010

This unique congress will consist of executive and technical sessions featuring innovation, sustainability and best practices. The event also includes an exhibition and formal IRF training workshops focused on the needs of Gulf and larger Middle East.

